

Advanced Ticketing Instructions

Heinz History Center, Fort Pitt Museum, and Meadowcroft

The Heinz History Center is suggesting visitors reserve timed tickets in advance of your visit. These instructions will help guide you through the process. You will need both the timed ticket as well as the library admission pass to receive free admission.

Step-by-Step Instructions:

1. Go to <https://www.heinzhistorycenter.org/tickets#members>
2. Select the museum (History Center, Fort Pitt, or Meadowcroft)
3. Select the date you plan to visit and click Continue.
4. Select how many people will be attending* and click Continue.
5. Select the time you wish to arrive and click Continue.
6. Review your selection and click Checkout.
7. Enter your name, email address and phone number, then click Submit Payment.
8. You will receive an email with your tickets, as well as the opportunity to download the tickets to print immediately (recommended).
9. When you arrive at the museum, you will be asked to provide both the ticket you received online and the admission pass you checked out from the library.

*Note: Our admission pass offers complimentary admission for up to four people. If less than four people plan to visit, please input that number (for example, if you plan to visit the museum alone, you will only put 1.)
