The Nationality Rooms at the University of Pittsburgh

Did you know that 2026 marks the centennial celebration of the University of Pittsburgh's renowned Nationality Rooms? Did you know that all thirty-one rooms—located in the Cathedral of Learning—were inspired and supported by various ethnic communities that settled in Allegheny County? Join us when Michael Walter, Manager of Education Programs, Nationality Rooms and Intercultural Exchange Programs for the university, will be here to discuss how and why the Nationality Rooms came to be.
